Run Report

Plzxplane's Run

It was a warm and humid night at Plzxplanes's run, Surely our "Best Looking RA" – HJ - could have done something to make it more comfortable.

(Something tells me that I'm treading on very dangerous ground here.)

It was a great run through roads and parks with a few hills thrown in. Tiny Tim needs to be congratulated for doing the entire run AND he even did run some of the way, Well done Tiny.

There were lots of fish hooks and long stretches that ended in a false trails.

However, Snowwhite (The hare's helper) was kind to us since the run wasn't quite his usual marathon.

Back at Plzxplane's several hashers took a dip in the swimming pool to cool off and then it was time for the circle. Lots of charges and of course our "Best Looking RA" couldn't help but make the usual obligatory charges to Anything.

Our newest member - It's Cum'n - received a serve from the RA for being named at the weekend Crankers Hash. He was also given the Clown Pants.

However, - It's Cum'n - received his punishment like a true hasher.

A great raffle this week – maybe because I actually won a few prizes.

Plzxplane provided an excellent spread of food – barbecued sausages, hamburgers and a variety of salads followed by trifle for sweets.

A great night as usual. Well done Plzxplane.

ON ON to the AGPU and a new Hash Year.

FINAL NEWSLETTER

This newsletter might become a collectors item because in this technological age it is the final one for RCH3. So in future please consult the Web Site for all information. I must thank everyone for their support throughout the year and especially Squat, who as Hash Scribe, has written most of the Run Reports and done a brilliant job. Thanks also to Boogie and Black U who have kindly written the reports during Squat's absence. (Also a great job done).
