Run Report

(The Squat Spot)

Moparse's Birthday Run

Moppy's run at Kewdale, unlike last week, was eventful.

Samaritan Snowy, picked up co-driver Thunder, map reader Boogie, GPS operators Smurf and Badger (2 machines) and somehow they managed to get themselves lost and be the last to arrive.

We had the usual photo shoot then Moppy gave us a demo of his flour marker.

ON ON!! - The runners one way and the walkers in the opposite direction. All went well and for the first time in a long while and the girls out did the boy runners 5/4.

The runners were well grouped due to a clever hare, but that all came to an abrupt end. The runners found 8 pointer markers. The same 8 markers Flutter and Boogie Bear managed to walk past.

Snowy, Thunder and Uncle Fester had an extra work out in pursuit of the trail. Deciding to 'On Home', some 2 1/2 blocks down the road, we got lucky and got back on track.

Snowy needed extra light to find his way and needed to rely on Smurf's generosity of a torch.

Across Leach Hwy we went but even that was not without incident! Impatient Baboon could not wait for the traffic lights and took off. We all followed but Festa was not willing to get road railed and was left behind, and forgotten. No consideration shown for age or beauty!

Nearing home the missing trail markers were over kill.

Boogie Bear showed off her clown pants and was only too happy to pass them onto Knicka-Less who is promising to make them more attractive.

Yet to be named Georgina was Hash Splash.

As planes deafened the circle, Baboon led the circle into song, singing "International Airport".

However, the night goes to Moppy. Scoring a shit run -1 and celebrating his birthday last Sunday but wife Brazilian had forgotten to buy a present. She offered Moppy her body instead of a "material thing". Moppy realising the situation, decided to embrace Brazilian and told her that he would prefer the material thing!
